Supported by Grace since

Tim and Carrie both come from Colorado and joined Cru's staff in 1981. Their first assignment was Notre Dame, where they served until 1985. They then served two years at Purdue and moved to Normal to serve at ISU in 1987. They were here until 2005 and attended Grace during that time.

The Dougherty's target audience has always been university students, helping them to know Christ and to make Him known to their peers and to equip them to serve Him in their communities and churches when they graduate. Their job now involves training, equipping and sending graduates all over the world to launch university ministries around the globe. They do this while making their home in Fishers, IN.
